

Copy

From: Carmines, Edward L.

To: Nixon, Gerry M.; Reininghaus, Wolf

Cc:

Subject: RE: Report P 0500/3334

Sent: 2/3/00 3:24 PM

Importance: Normal

The only suggestion I have is in the abstract:

Although there were statistically significant differences between the cigarettes with and without ethyl maltol in the filler, the differences were numerically low and did not correlate with the amount of added ethyl maltol. From this, it can be concluded that the amounts of ethyl maltol in the filler did not significantly affect the smoke constituents determined in this study.

Thanx, Ed