

H. J. Reynolds
Winston-Salem, No. Carolina

Dear Sir:

There really is no reason to beat around the bush with little niceties and "how do you do's." I have a complaint to make and I think it is a justifiable one.

Let me tell you a little about myself first. I am a 29 year old woman with a lovely husband, 8 month old son and a 9 month old puppy. I am fairly attractive and feminine in appearance, although not to the extent of being frilly.
I am intelligent enough to hold a Bachelor of Science in Design and was quite a successful Interior Designer before I became a house wife.

No, I'm not applying for a job.
As I said before, I have a complaint to make. I have been breaking Camels for 12 years. I like to smoke!
