Dear Carl:

Enclosed is a new draft of a release on your forthcoming AHJ editorial. It was prepared after discussion with the Shook, Hardy & Bacon people in Kansas City.

You'll notice that the changes are really few and minimal. There's a new headline and a full quote for the opening paragraph. Also, there's a new second-from-the-end paragraph that I think is quite good. I somehow missed it earlier.

I would suggest one other thing: when the release is issued it would be helpful to put the journal's publication date, e.g. May issue, in parentheses at the end of the first paragraph.

If your reaction to the re-draft is different than that to the first version, please let me know.

Hilda and I enjoyed seeing you and Ruth in San Diego and we look forward to seeing you at the Twin Congress in Jerusalem in June. We will be staying at the Plaza Hotel there.

Incidentally, I've arranged for Prof. Parisi to invite Joann Rodgers of the Hearst papers to attend the Congress.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

Leonard S. Zahn
