I do NOT want my name taken off the mailing list. I ^{have} smoked 2 packs a day for many years. Now, about the coupons you've been sending lately. All the other cigarette companies send coupons out where you buy your cigarettes any where you want to, and they also give gifts or prizes with UPC codes. Now, if I have to change brands to use ^{the} other coupons that I can use anywhere, then by god I will. The store where I have to use the ones you've been sending lately EZ Serve Majik, charges $4.00 more than I can buy them without a coupon anywhere else.

Salem is my brand, but I can change and about 11 friends of mine feel the same way.
