

TO	J. L. KNOOP
DEPT.
C. C. to	J. F. NALL
"
"
"

DATE July 29, 1977

The data show:

1. The density of Kent 100 is low compared to the other versions.
2. Tobacco analyses show no apparent differences in the blends.
3. The differences in tar and nicotine deliveries can be accounted for with the differences in length of tobacco smoked and filter pressure drop.

J. L. E.

SECRET. Do Not Copy Or Make Notes Of
This Page And Do Not Give Any Of The Information Contained Here To Anyone Except
To Anyone Employed In Connection With The Macgregor Security Project.