

2. Undergraduate teaching (1966-71)

While at the Middlesex Hospital Medical School lectures in the Preclinical course in series on Behavioural Sciences.

Clinical course: Seminars, tutorials and out-patient teaching sessions to medical students during this period of psychiatric clerking.

3. Postgraduate medical teaching (since 1971)

Since I have been at the Maudsley I have participated in various ways in the teaching in both the introductory block and the neuropsychiatric block. I have also lectured and chaired clinical meetings in a number of other hospitals. Also in the course of my time as a consultant I have supervised numerous M.Phil., Ph.D. and M.D. theses and I initiated a mini-journal club in psychogeriatrics for the registrars attached to the unit.
